

Week ending 20th March

Last Friday evening Tea Club celebrated Comic Relief with face painting which they all enjoyed.

Little Harts made hand prints as gifts for Mothering Sunday.

In Nursery children learnt about what mothers do, which includes washing babies and doing the washing, then pegging it out to dry.

Lots of story books were out in the garden for children to read.

Parents will know that we have had an Ofsted inspection this week. Thank you for the responses sent in. The report will be available in approximately 3 weeks.
