

Week ending 25th June 2010:

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the fete in any way last Saturday. It was a lovely day with so many people from the local area attending. We made approximately £1500 profit which will go towards the continuing garden project.

Here are some pictures from the day.....

